READING AND WRITING

6 Read the text.

María and Federico live near a big forest called Doñana. There are many animals in Doñana National Park, like wild boars. Wild boars are like pigs, but they live in the wilderness.

Federico's favourite part of the forest is the lake. Every year, flamingos fly from Africa and eat fish in the lake.

Flamingos are Federico's favourite animal. They have got long legs and pink feathers.

María prefers to go to the mountain because there are lynxes. Her favourite animal is the Iberian lynx. The lynxes eat mice and small birds.

Lynxes are short, and flamingos are tall. Flamingos have got a long neck. Lynxes have got a short neck. The lynx has got four legs, but the flamingo has got two legs. They are great Andalusian animals!

7 Read the text again. Read the sentences and write yes or no.

a) There aren't many animals in Doñana.

b) Flamingos fly to the lake from Africa.

c) Flamingos eat mice and small birds.

d) Lynxes are María's favourite animals.
